

Michele Banks, aka Artologica, creates vibrant and unique watercolor paintings, collages and silk scarves inspired by the brain. Her neuroscience-based works range from semi-realistic depictions of individual neurons to metaphorical explorations of the workings of the brain, touching on themes of consciousness, cognition, and emotion. Her artwork has been shown at the NIH and AAAS and featured in the Scientist, Scientific American, and Wired.

